

SCHOOLING FOOD: NOURISHING A NATION?

A SYMPOSIUM CO-HOSTED BY THE FACULTY OF EDUCATION
AND FACULTY OF ARTS, MONASH
UNIVERSITY AND SUPPORTED BY
THE HISTORY AND EDUCATION SIG,
AUSTRALIAN ASSOCIATION FOR
RESEARCH IN EDUCATION

T1/T2 GROUND FLOOR,
MATHESON LIBRARY,
MONASH UNIVERSITY
CLAYTON CAMPUS

MONDAY 18 FEBRUARY
1.00PM-4.30PM

CLICK HERE TO RSVP
BEFORE 1 FEBRUARY, 2019

SYMPOSIUM QUERIES
DR DEANA LEAHY
DEANA.LEAHY@MONASH.EDU

1:00	Exhibition tour
1:30	Arrival and welcome	Professor Jane Maree Maher and Dr Deana Leahy (Monash University)
1:50	Schooling Food: An appetite for history and the after-taste of the past	Professor Julie McLeod (University of Melbourne)
2:00	Mothers' food work and mass circulation women's magazines	Associate Professor Helen Proctor (University of Sydney)
2:20	Mass schooling and the curriculum of the body	Dr Kellie Burns (University of Sydney)
2:40	Food Values: Connecting canteens to the food system in history	Associate Professor Adele Wessell (Southern Cross University)
3:00	Afternoon tea
3:30	Oslo to Collingwood: The Oslo lunch in postwar Australia	Dr Sian Supski (Monash University)
3:50	From eugenics to the microbiome: Biopolitics of nutrition science in Australian schools	Dr Christopher Mayes (Deakin University)
4:10	Discussant	Professor Megan Warin (University of Adelaide)
4:30	Closing remarks
5:00	Exhibition launch

MONASH
University